DEFINITION OF A POSTBACCALAUREATE STUDENT

A postbaccalaureate undergraduate student is a holder of an accredited bachelor's degree who has not been admitted to a graduate degree program and who submits either (a) an official application for admission to pursue a second bachelor's degree or (b) an official application for admission to pursue course work not to be used for graduate credit.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Checklist

- Complete and submit this application to:
Office of Admissions
1217 University of Oregon
Eugene, OR 97403-1217 USA
- Enclose a $50 (U.S.) nonrefundable application fee. Make check payable to University of Oregon or fill out credit card information on page one.
- Submit a statement of purpose—a one- to two-page explanation of the reasons you want to enroll as a candidate for a second bachelor's degree. This statement will be used in conjunction with your college transcripts to determine your admission status.
- Request that official transcripts from each college you attended, including where you earned a degree, be sent to the Office of Admissions.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

This completed application and your file materials must be submitted to the Office of Admissions no fewer than 30 days before the beginning of the term in which you are applying for admission.

STUDENT-STATUS RESTRICTIONS

If your major is in business administration, communication disorders and sciences, fine and applied arts, or music your admission is subject to departmental approval.

CONVERTING FROM GRADUATE STUDENT STATUS TO POSTBACCALAUREATE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT STATUS

Students who have been admitted to an advanced degree program may convert to postbaccalaureate undergraduate status only if:

- the graduate degree has been awarded, or
- the student has been dropped from the degree program by the institution, or
- a request for voluntary relinquishment of graduate student status has been approved by the dean of the Graduate School.

TUITION

Postbaccalaureate undergraduate students pay undergraduate tuition according to their current residency status.

Oregon University System social security number disclosure and consent statement

You are requested to provide voluntarily your social security number to assist the UO and the OUS (and organizations conducting studies on behalf of the OUS) in developing, validating, or administering predictive tests and assessments; administering student aid programs; improving instruction; identifying students internally; collecting student debts; or comparing student educational experiences with subsequent workforce experiences. When conducting studies, the UO and the OUS will disclose your social security number only in a manner that does not permit personal identification of you by individuals other than representatives of the UO and the OUS (or the organization conducting the study for the OUS) and only if the information is destroyed when no longer needed for the purposes for which the study was conducted. By providing your social security number, you are consenting to the uses identified above. This request is made pursuant to ORS 351.070 and 351.085. Provision of your social security and consent to its use is not required and, if you choose not to do so, you will not be denied any right, benefit, and privilege provided by law. You may revoke your consent for the use of your social security number at any time by writing to the Office of Admissions.
