DEFINITION OF A POSTBACCALAUREATE STUDENT

A postbaccalaureate undergraduate student is a holder of an accredited bachelor’s degree who has not been admitted to a graduate degree program and who submits either (a) an official application for admission to pursue a second bachelor’s degree or (b) an official application for admission to pursue course work not to be used for graduate credit.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Checklist

- Complete and submit this application to
Office of Admissions
1217 University of Oregon
Eugene OR 97403-1217 USA
- Enclose a $50 (US) nonrefundable application fee. Make check payable to University of Oregon or fill out credit card information on page 1.
- Submit a statement of purpose—a one- to two-page explanation of the reasons you want to enroll as a candidate for a second bachelor’s degree. This statement will be used in conjunction with your college transcripts to determine your admission status.
- Request that official transcripts from each college you attended, including where you earned a degree, be sent to the Office of Admissions.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

This completed application and your file materials must be submitted to the Office of Admissions no fewer than 30 days before the beginning of the term in which you are applying for admission.

SPECIAL STATUS MAJORS

If you plan to major in architecture, interior architecture, landscape architecture, educational foundations, family and human services, or international studies, contact the academic department for preapproval prior to applying for admission. If you plan to major in business administration, communication disorders and sciences, fine and applied arts, or music, submit your application for admission and the Office of Admissions will then contact the academic department for departmental approval.

CONVERTING FROM GRADUATE STUDENT STATUS TO POSTBACCALAUREATE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT STATUS

Students who have been admitted to an advanced degree program may convert to postbaccalaureate undergraduate status only if:

- the graduate degree has been awarded, or
- the student has been dropped from the degree program by the institution, or
- a request for voluntary relinquishment of graduate student status has been approved by the dean of the Graduate School.

TUITION

Postbaccalaureate undergraduate students pay undergraduate tuition according to their current residency status.

Social Security Number Disclosure and Consent Statement

To comply with the Tax Payer Relief Act of 1997, the University of Oregon must obtain your correct social security number (SSN) to file returns with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and to furnish a statement to you. The returns filed by the UO must contain information about qualified tuition and related expenses. The Privacy Act of 1974, section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code, requires that you give your correct SSN to agencies that must file information returns with the IRS. The IRS uses your SSN for identification and to verify the accuracy of your tax return. For more information, please refer to Internal Revenue Code section 6050S.

By signing the application, you give your permission for the use of your SSN to assist the UO (and organizations conducting studies for or on behalf of the UO) in developing, validating, or administering predictive tests and assessments; administering student aid programs; improving instruction; identifying students internally; collecting student debts; or comparing student educational experiences with subsequent work-force experiences. When conducting studies, the UO will disclose your SSN only in a manner that does not permit personal identification of you by individuals other than representatives of the UO (or the organization conducting the study for the UO) and only if the information is destroyed when no longer needed for the purposes for which the study was conducted. By providing your social security number, you are consenting to the uses identified above. This request is made pursuant to Oregon Revised Statutes 351.070 and 351.085. You are not required to consent to the use of your SSN for research; if you choose not to do so, you will not be denied any right, benefit, or privilege provided by law. You may revoke your consent for the use of your SSN at any time by writing to the Office of Admissions. If you do not give consent to use your SSN for research, please attach a note requesting a system-generated number.

The University of Oregon affirms and actively promotes the right of all individuals to equal opportunity in education and employment at this institution without regard to race, color, sex, national origin, age, religion, marital status, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or any other extraneous consideration not directly and substantively related to effective performance. This policy implements all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and executive orders.
