

PREBACCALAUREATE AND DUCK LINK PROGRAMS

Application for High School Students 2018-19

The University of Oregon is pleased to provide a special academic opportunity for high school students. The prebaccalaureate (prebac) program allows talented and motivated high school students from any geographic region to enroll in regular University of Oregon classes, with no course credit limit.

Duck Link, a special program within the prebaccalaureate admission status, allows select high school students living in Lane County, Oregon, to enroll in up to eight credits per quarter at a reduced fee rate. To participate in Duck Link in any subject area, a student must have exhausted all high school course work available to them in that subject area.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Participation Requirements

- Currently attending a regionally accredited or standard high school
- Demonstrated maturity and self-sufficiency
- Recommendation of high school official
- Permission of a parent or guardian

Additional Duck Link requirements:

- Outstanding academic performance in subject area
- Exhausted all available course offerings in a particular subject area

Program Details

Students who are accepted into the Prebac or Duck Link programs:

- May enroll in regular University of Oregon classes as agreed on by the student’s high school counselor and parent, and, if participating in Duck Link, the school district
- Receive regular UO credit that becomes part of their UO academic record
- Are expected to fulfill all course requirements
- Are required to meet all UO registration and payment deadlines, as specified in the Schedule of Classes for the terms enrolled

Registration

- Students applying for the Prebac or Duck Link programs must obtain an application from their high school’s designated contact
- Prebac: The student’s high school will send the completed application to the University of Oregon Office of Admissions. Duck Link: The high school will send the student’s completed application to the district office for approval. The application will then be forwarded to the UO for processing
- The UO will send a confirmation letter to the student, including the time and date the student is eligible to register. Included in the letter are the student’s ID and Personal Access Code (PAC) numbers. Both are necessary to register for classes
- To view the classes available, go to uoregon.edu, click on “Current Students,” and then select “Class Schedule”
- If after registration, you find that you are not able to attend or complete a class, please identify yourself as a Prebac or Ducklink student to the Office of Academic Advising (101 Oregon Hall, 541-346-3211). They will explain your options and official withdrawal procedures
